

Kid's Corner

Harvest time is when a farmer's crops are ready to be picked from the field. Farmers grow corn, pumpkins, carrots, potatoes, and all kinds of colorful vegetables.

When they're ready to be picked, the farmer harvests the crops and takes them to market so our families can have fresh food to eat. Help us color this picture of the food you can find at harvest time.

Seasonal Crossword Puzzle

ACROSS

2. There will be lots to gobble about when we have this at Thanksgiving in November!
4. A sip of this delicious apple drink warms you up inside.
5. These people sailed to America in a ship called the "Mayflower" and had a big thanksgiving feast.
8. When the leaves fall, it's time to get out one of these and put the leaves in bags.
9. Look at the two clues to find the missing word: _____-on-the-cob and candy _____.

DOWN

1. Getting a tour around the farm is so much fun on one of these!
3. Sometimes farmers put these in their fields to frighten off the birds!
5. Soon we'll pick one of these to carve into a jack-o-lantern.
6. Though they're green on the trees in the summer, soon they'll change color and fall.
7. The leaves turn this color when they are about to fall.

